

In 2017, we will know we've been successful because

We will have committed involvement from our Membership that is representative of the city

We will generate effective action around issues that are important to our membership and the community

We will increase civic awareness among our Membership and the public

We will build a strategic coalition

We will start to build accountability and transparency for Bridgeport civic life